Information for candidates

The following information explains what may happen following a clerical re-check, a review of marking and any subsequent appeal for one of your examinations after your subject grade has been issued there are three possible outcomes:

- Your original mark is lowered, so your final grade may be lower than the original grade you received.
- Your original mark is confirmed as correct, so there is no change to your grade.
- Your original mark is raised, so your final grade may be higher than the original grade your received.

This form should be retained on the centre's files for at least six months.
